

CSEA, Inc., Local 1000, AFSCME, AFL-CIO is a labor organization that represents over 265,000

Law Clerks are given legal research assignments to assist the twelve in house attorneys, including the General Counsel, on various topics affecting the Union's members. Law Clerks will be permitted and encouraged to attend hearing, arbitration and other appearances. Also, time permitting, Law Clerks will assist attorneys in case preparation, including interviewing witnesses.

Some former Law Clerks have been retained by CSEA in full-time attorney positions while others have secured positions in the Labor and Employment field, including positions with other unions, positions with law firms representing unions and employers, and/or became arbitrators and mediators, etc.

Our Law Clerk positions offer a wealth of experience in the labor relations field that will be invaluable to any candidate.